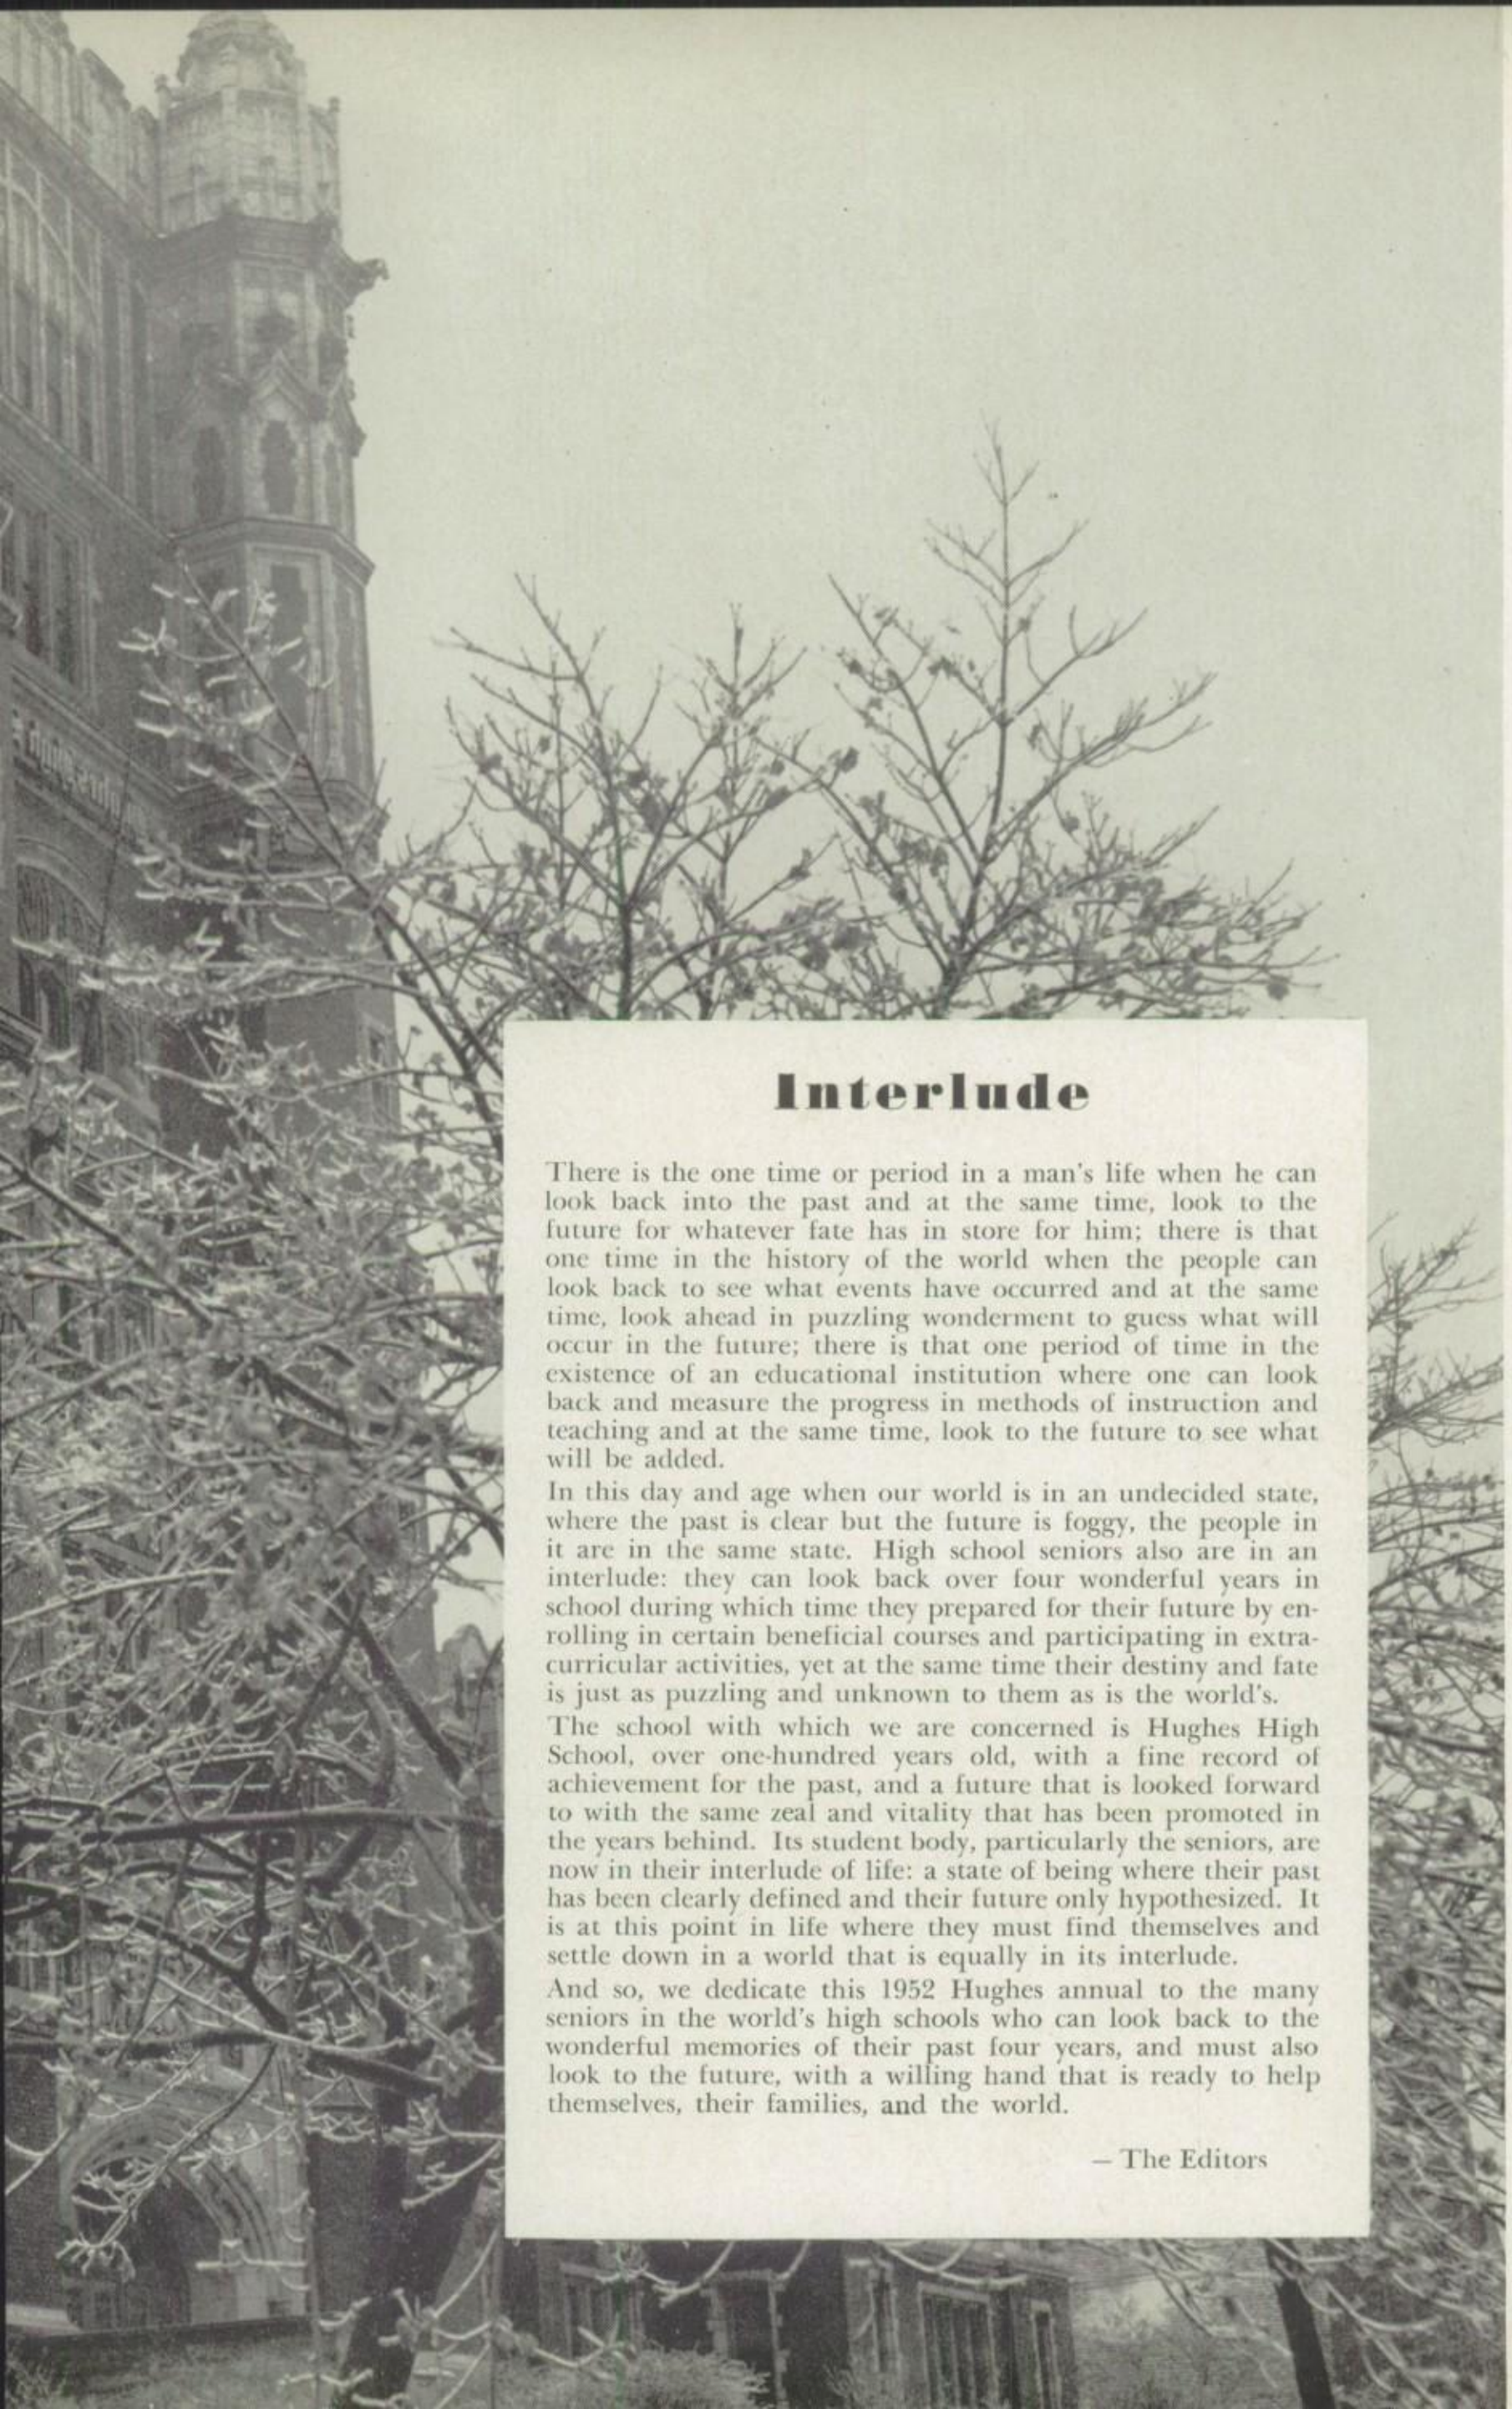
It has become tradition for Hughes students, when arriving or leaving school, to stop at the famed Winged Victory statue. At this focal point in the Hughes High School hall, dates are made and homework completed. It has been the one spot where students spent many an enjoyable interlude between classes.

Contents



Interlude

There is the one time or period in a man's life when he can look back into the past and at the same time, look to the future for whatever fate has in store for him; there is that one time in the history of the world when the people can look back to see what events have occurred and at the same time, look ahead in puzzling wonderment to guess what will occur in the future; there is that one period of time in the existence of an educational institution where one can look back and measure the progress in methods of instruction and teaching and at the same time, look to the future to see what will be added.

In this day and age when our world is in an undecided state, where the past is clear but the future is foggy, the people in it are in the same state. High school seniors also are in an interlude: they can look back over four wonderful years in school during which time they prepared for their future by enrolling in certain beneficial courses and participating in extra-curricular activities, yet at the same time their destiny and fate is just as puzzling and unknown to them as is the world's.

The school with which we are concerned is Hughes High School, over one-hundred years old, with a fine record of achievement for the past, and a future that is looked forward to with the same zeal and vitality that has been promoted in the years behind. Its student body, particularly the seniors, are now in their interlude of life: a state of being where their past has been clearly defined and their future only hypothesized. It is at this point in life where they must find themselves and settle down in a world that is equally in its interlude.

And so, we dedicate this 1952 Hughes annual to the many seniors in the world's high schools who can look back to the wonderful memories of their past four years, and must also look to the future, with a willing hand that is ready to help themselves, their families, and the world.

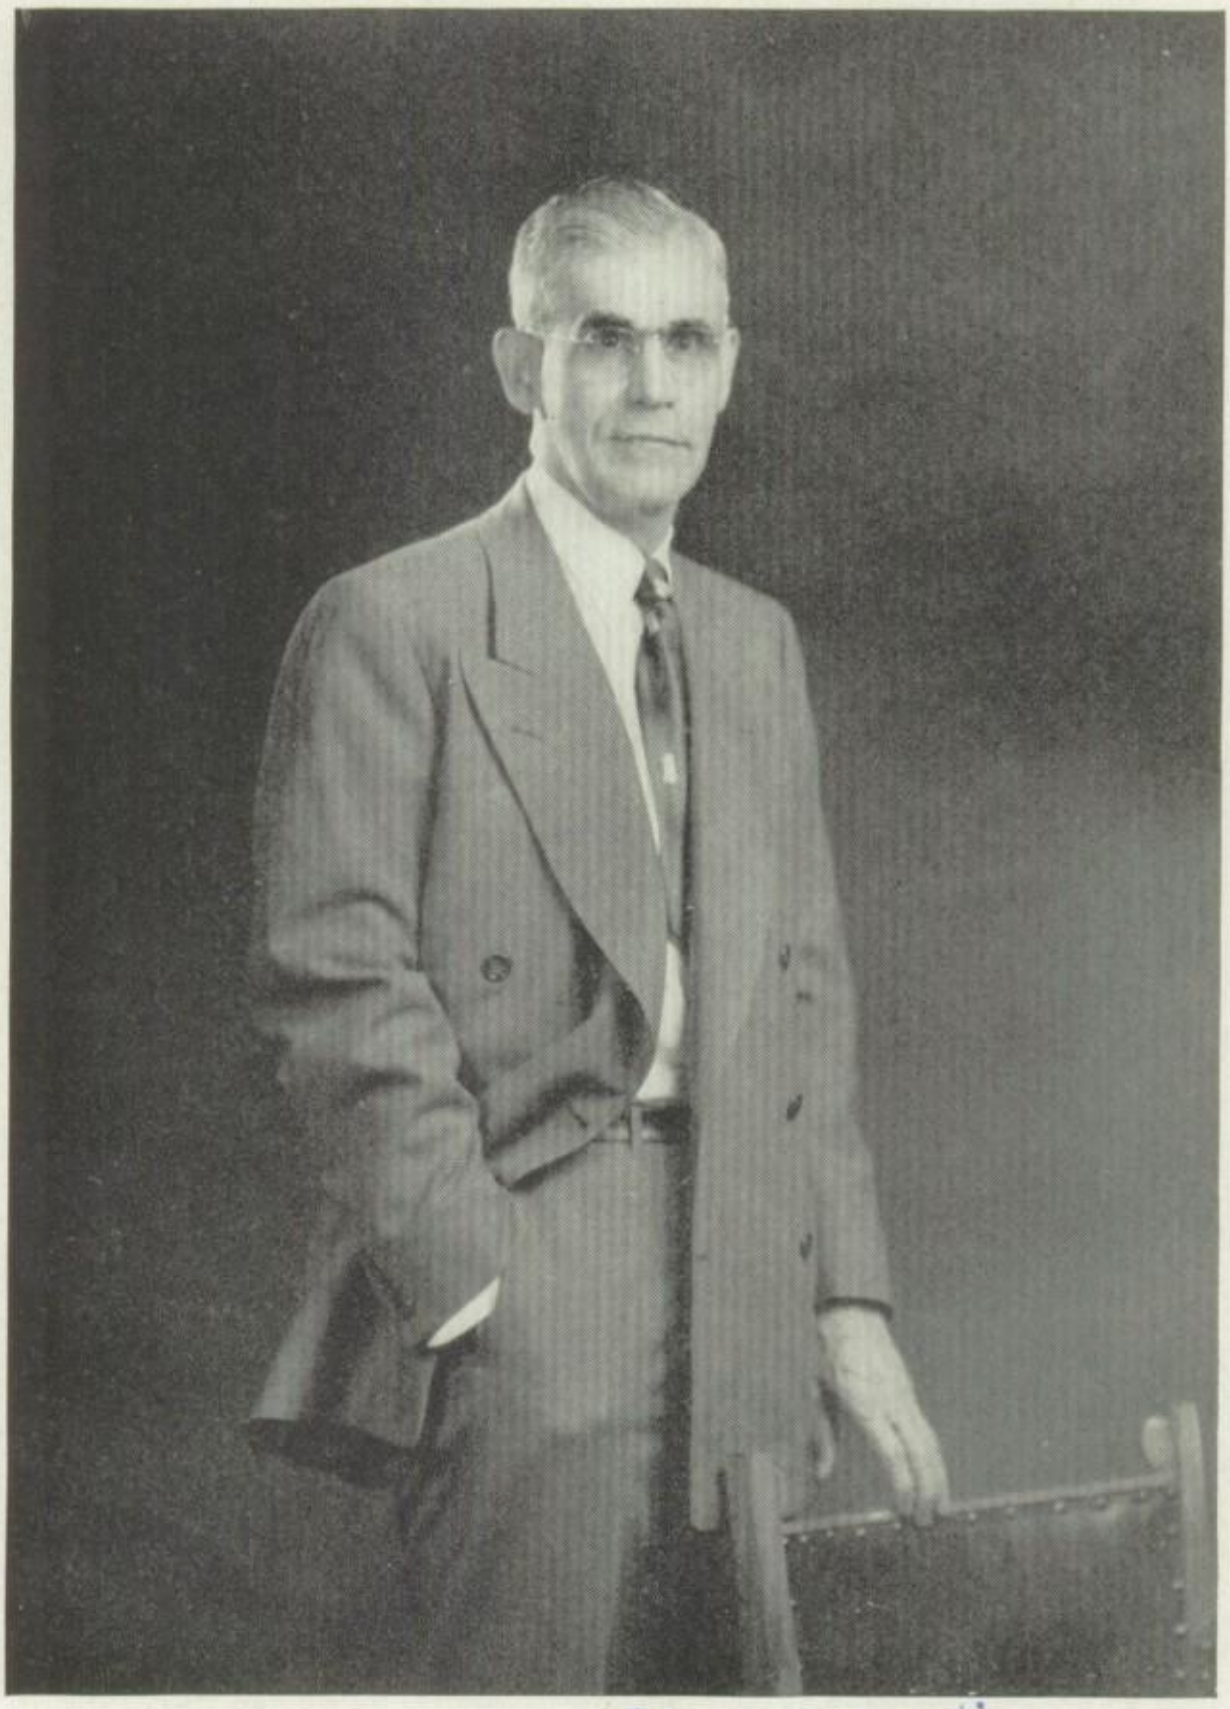
Mr. Elmer W. Kizer, Principal of Hughes High School



Elmer W Kizer

"Interlude! 'This Is Our Day' " is indeed a splendid theme for the Annual of 1952. To me this means the part you, who are about to be graduated, are playing at the present time in the drama of life. May I enlarge upon the theme a little and consider your life from birth until death as an interlude. When you were born you were given a great heritage. Advancement in art, music, sculpture, scientific knowledge was given you without the asking. Some day you will be asked by a power greater than your own to make an accounting of deeds done on earth. The time to some may come very soon; to others the call may give opportunity to do great things.

There are many interludes, then, in your life of which your graduation from high school is but the close of one. You are about ready to start on another interlude. It may be college, it may be war, it may be marriage, it may be industry, etc. Whatever it is I hope that your preparation while at Hughes has been adequate to see you through.

Life becomes a little more serious as time goes on and during each interlude I trust you can say, "This Is My Day."

Able Assistants Guide Students

Ben F. Fulks

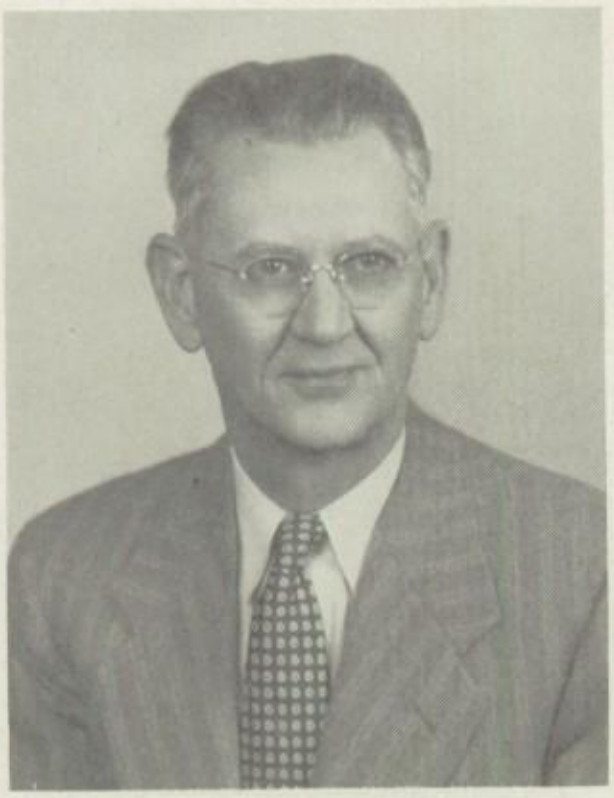
Mr. Ben F. Fulks has been the assistant principal of Hughes since 1948. For the past four years he has been the sponsor of the junior-senior honor boys' Hughes Club and the efficient adviser of the freshman boys. Mr. Fulks also enthusiastically assists the boys working in the Book Room and Book Shop.

Edna LeRoy

Mrs. Edna LeRoy can be found in room 110 from the early hours of the morning to the late hours of the afternoon. She very capably fills the position of Dean of Girls. Another of her most important responsibilities is sponsoring Student Council. Mrs. LeRoy also advises all students seeking scholarship information.

Clyde Hall

Mr. Clyde Hall sympathetically listens to absence and tardy excuses of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade boys in Room 14. Mr. Hall finds time during the course of the day to ably teach Algebra I and II, and Plane Geometry. Also among his many duties is his position as financial adviser of the Hughes Annual.



Gladys Busch

Freshman girls who have come up with some of the most complicated of all problems find a cheerful and competent Miss Gladys Busch as their adviser. She is always ready to assist the girls in any way possible as they stream into Room 109 before and throughout the school day. Miss Busch also teaches the Latin language to Hughes students.

Miss Margaret Hall is the very capable counselor for the Hughes tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade girls and can always be seen with a pleasant smile and a ready hand of assistance. She has taught in the past a regular orientation course to the freshman girls to accelerate their adjustment at Hughes. Miss Hall is working with the faculty on the new home room guidance programs.

Mr. Ralph Loudenslager, fondly called Mr. "L." by the boys, is the very efficient counselor for the Hughes boys. He is the coordinator of part time and summer jobs that many of the boys seek and is always helpful to the underclassmen in planning their programs for the forthcoming school year. Another of his duties is working on the home room guidance programs.

Teachers, Students Acclaim New Home Room Guidance Program

As an inovation for the 1951-1952 Hughes curriculum, the faculty has inaugurated a new home guidance program. Every Tuesday morning an extended home room period lasts until 9:00, during which time various programs are presented. Each room under the sponsorship of its home room teacher elected its officers to run the weekly sessions. In most cases, a program chairman was appointed along with a special committee. This committee secured speakers, lecturers, and various films for presentation to their classmates. The teachers were by no means idle during the course of the week. They devoted one of their free periods each week and met with Mr. Kizer, Miss Hall, and Mr. Loudenslager for special instructions. The information was carried back to the individual home rooms and was incorporated into the programs. The seniors of the school elected their own program committee which worked on programs for the entire class. Speakers and films were secured on topics from flowers that can be found in Sharon Woods to Pygmies in South Africa or dope addiction. The home room guidance program was originated with the purpose of creating a more informal relationship between students to know each other. It can be recorded at the end of this year as a successful project which is only one of the many steps toward a more progressive second century of Hughes High School.

Working with Mr. Kizer on one of the first additions to the program of the second century of Hughes are: Miss Helen Bejach, Miss Elizabeth Zorn, Mrs. Amelia Dalrymple, Mr. Elmer Kizer, Mr. Ralph Loudenslager, Miss Margaret Hall, Miss Mary Barnette, Mrs. Elizabeth Shields, and Miss Katherine Evans.

Able assistants to the secretarial staff of Hughes help make the school a better place in which students receive a practical education. Students pictured above in the office are: Barbara Schallick, Marilyn Heintz, Sue Ann Peterson, Margie Wagner, and Lucille Boothe.

Secretaries Perform Many Duties

Hughes High School is very fortunate in having four efficient secretaries. They are always on hand, morning and noon, for friendly clerical assistance and advice.

Miss Eleanor Krampe is the ever smiling secretary to Mr. Kizer. She capably handles all of the official correspondence and is the comforter to the empty pockets of the teachers when she gives them their pay checks.

Those students and teachers wishing announcements in the morning bulletin must see Miss Carrie Kohrmann in the center office, first desk. She carries on the business of the school in a very enthusiastic fashion which is a credit to Hughes.

Always counting, receiving, or paying money is Miss Stella Rowland, who competently fills the position of school treasurer. Stella, as she is called by friends and assistants, works in the front office between 8:00 a.m. and 12 n. answering phone calls, and typing and mimeographing the absence list.

The soft voice that answers the Hughes phone after 12:00 n. belongs to friendly Mrs. Dorothy Tharp who works only part time. She helps those seniors going to college by sending transcripts of their grades to requesting colleges.

Lunchroom Staff Provides Nourishing Foods for Strong Bodies

Mrs. Alice Raible, manager of the Hughes High School lunchroom, has been with us since 1947. Mrs. Raible a Hughes graduate, plans the daily menu weeks in advance of its actual preparation and also handles all of the financial transactions.

The kitchen staff daily cooks for over twenty-two hundred students' mouths as well as an additional one hundred teachers. There are three lunchrooms that were originally built in the old Hughes building: one teachers', beautifully decorated, with glass topped tables, inlaid carpeting, and colorful pictures on the wall; and two student lunchrooms which have inlaid linoleum floors, beautifully painted pictures, and water fountains.

Mrs. Alice Raible

There are many people hired by the Board of Education who assist Mrs. Raible in her important responsibility to the school and community. They not only maintain a very clean kitchen but also prepare hot lunches which will assist in building able citizens of good mind and body.

As seen below, Mrs. Raible is instructing her able assistants in the kitchen for the preparation of the noon lunch. In recent years many new and modern methods and devices for cooking have been introduced into the lunchroom. The student body looks forward to the home style mashed potatoes and cherry pie a la mode.

Busy Doctors and Nurse Prepare Students for Energetic Life Ahead

Mary Ann Ferntheil is the Hughes nurse who daily looks after the health and welfare of the students. The nurse's office is located on the basement floor opposite the Goodloe Dining Room.

The school's nurse, who works in conjunction with the Cincinnati City Hall Public Health Department, assists the two doctors who regularly visit the school to examine the boys and girls who try out for any of the schools athletic teams. Students are examined if they want to be on such teams as cross-country, track, football, or the G. A. A., teams of hockey, basketball, and archery. One of Miss Ferntheil's many other duties is to examine those students who become ill during school time. She consults with the students' families on the matter of their birth certificates. She makes home calls to investigate TB and any disease epidemics. Miss Ferntheil is also the school nurse at St. Monica School.

Miss Mary Ann Ferntheil

Since 1949, when Hughes had installed its new public address system, students from Mrs. Heile's speech class have been giving the morning announcements over it. As seen below, Ed Schollmaier, Dick Kammann, Vic Rosenbaum and Alvin Cohn, test their voices over the P.A. (Stewart Lipp, not in picture.)

Education

In the Classroom, Shop, and Lab

As we look back on our years at Hughes, we realize that the knowledge we have obtained is the greatest asset our school has given us. We have chosen the subjects which will increase our efficiency in our future life. Those of us who enroll in college will continue our academic education; but for many, this is the last formal education we shall have. Some precious moments have been stolen from study for other activities in our busy world; however, the gain overshadows the loss. Whatever field we enter, we know we are prepared because excellent teachers have joined hands with counselors and administrators in our modern educational system to increase our knowledge.

Knowledge of Our Language . . .

Many people consider English the most important subject in our curriculum. To achieve success in our complex world, a complete knowledge of our own language is indispensable. Literature, grammar, and composition make up our basic English course. However, the dramatics course offers a history of drama, a study of acting, and the actual production of plays. In journalism, we study famous journalists and their works, and the publishing of a paper. Public Speaking develops voices and self-confidence. Debates and speeches are given by members of the class. English courses offered at Hughes develop our personalities and make us more competent.

Miss Anne Long has a threefold job at Hughes. She not only teaches English classes, but serves as Head of the English Department, and as a cooperating teacher. In the picture below, Miss Heis, a student teacher, conducts an English I class, while Miss Long observes.

Gail Steinberg applies make-up on the Russian, Leonard Levine.

"Life With Father" was presented by the Hughes Drama Department. Rehearsing for the rollicking comedy are Janet Werner, Carol Jordon, Tom Burke, Doug Hudson, Fay Reiman, and Gabe Frommer.

Dramatics Develops Many Skills

Into the production of a play go precious hours of many people. Girls are trained to do make-up so that the actor's faces are definite on the stage. Costumers work long hours to create effective costumes for the large cast. The property committee works weeks ahead of time collecting and buying properties for the stage and actors. The prompters attend long rehearsals to help the actors learn lines. Artists make the scenery. The stage crew boys are always on hand to take care of lighting and sound effects. The printing classes produce the programs. Without an audience, the play would be a "flop." There, we students "play our role." "You Can't Take It With You" was produced in November, and "Life With Father" in March. Hughes students took part in a television play "The Last Curtain," also produced in March. This year has been a successful dramatic year, and we are looking forward to next year's productions.

Ready with the properties for "You Can't Take It With You" are Barbara Michaelson, Sue Skirving, Barbara Houston, and Dee Hafer.

Joe Mueller and Carl Schiller wait for the cue.

Knowledge of the Past Gives Us Understanding of the Present

The Social Studies Department includes World History, World Geography, American History, American Problems, and Economics and Sociology. These courses give us a complete background in world problems. In our world of turmoil, a knowledge of historical problems and how they were solved in the past is important to every responsible citizen who must participate in solving contemporary problems.

Science Increases Our Knowledge of the Universe

Science is the study of our universe. Hughes has a fine Science department, preparing students for life in our world. Science courses offered are Biology, Zoology, Botany, General Science, Physics, and Chemistry. Excellent laboratories give pupils actual experience in all these courses. Science is becoming more prominent in the United States schools because a complete understanding of the workings of our world is important to our happiness.

Gym Provides Recreation For Hughes Students

Every high school student is required to take three periods of physical education a week. This year the gym teachers attended the Annual Midwest Convention for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation held in Cincinnati. Below is Miss Kramer's sixth bell gym class waiting for the next exercise.

Seniors

On Top of the World

After four years of hard work and lots of fun we are getting ready for graduation. Although we have waited for this event a long time, parting, surprisingly, will be accompanied with tears and sorrowful goodbyes. This senior year was probably the happiest one of our high school life. Many new friends were made, and extra-curricular activities became a part of our daily life. We have tried to do all we possibly could in our senior year, and above all, we have tried to make good grades in all our subjects. Summed up in a few words our senior year has been a wonderful one. With that in mind, we must remember that this year has only been a stepping stone to our life's ambition and in order to reach it, we must keep up the high standard that we have set.

Senior Prom

Soft, sweet music mingled with the sound of happy voices and gay laughter flowed through the warm spring air. It was the biggest event of the year, the Hughes High School Senior Prom held at Castle Farm.

Dim lights added to the romantic atmosphere as the handsomely dressed couples in the ballroom glided lightly to the melodic strains of enchanting music.

It was a big decision – the day had come when the juniors had to choose from over 400 students, four capable people to lead their senior class. Who were they to be?

As the results came in, we found out that the following were elected: Ronald Lucas, President; Vincent Orlando, Treasurer; Joan Thomas, Vice President; and Shirley Barret, Secretary. Their leadership has helped to make this year one of the best ever.

Behind Us Now . . .

"Behind us now but with us always," with these words we turn to gaze fondly at the familiar events which have added to our happy memories of life at Hughes.

PIGTAIL AND BOWTIE DAY, which has become a tradition for seniors at Hughes, brings a smile to the lips of all who remember the comical costumes seen throughout the corridors.

Senior auditoriums were of special interest on Tuesday mornings when homerooms 112, 205, and 312 gathered together to discuss many interesting and important topics.

Appointment books were opened and dates were cleared for senior pictures to be taken during summer vacation or early autumn.

The Ring Committee worked for many hours fitting rings to our fingers, and, later, passing them out to an impatient line of squirming seniors.

Suspense and beauty were the elements which made the crowning of the band queen so exciting. Everyone waited whispering in hushed tones until the band queen marched out onto the football field, and smiled revealing two big dimples. The tension was released and cries of, "Rah, for Judy!" were heard throughout the stadium.

Yes, this senior year has been filled with many happy, memorable events that, although they are behind us now will be with us always, quite vividly in our minds.

Underclassmen

On The Way Up

Underclassmen are the framework of a high school. They are the students in whose hands lies the continuing success of a high school's history.

By working hard in their studies and making many friends they enter into the full swing of school life. It is in these years that Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors make social contacts that will stay with them throughout life, and by participating in all activities, especially those of their particular class, learn to cooperate and work with many different people to make their activity a success.

During this period of their lives they set the pattern of their future and prove their respective ability for responsible leadership.

Juniors

As Juniors, the future leaders of Hughes High School, students increasingly participate in the various activities. Most prominent among these, is the weekly publication of the school newspaper, "The Gargoyle." This provides experience for those students interested in journalism as a possible future career.

Pictured above, reading a bound copy of last year's Gargoyles, are Herb Pence, sports editor and Dorothy Aberman and Dale Peters, the two editors. These three, assisted by the other members of the 1952 staff, have done a splendid job in making each issue of this year's Gargoyle an outstanding accomplishment.

By the high standards of the Gargoyle, and other activities, the Junior Class has proved itself able to undertake the responsibilities that will be handed down to them as the Seniors of tomorrow.

Sophomores

Sophomores who represent the interlude between frightened Freshmen and confident upperclassmen, are well enough acquainted with the hustle and bustle of life in a large high school to participate in the many social and intellectual activities. They are not yet experienced enough to be classified as actual leaders of the school. At this phase in their lives they are considered followers who are interestedly watching and learning from present leaders of the school so that they too, can become outstanding school citizens, and perform the duties of upperclassmen in a responsible and beneficial way.

The Huzettes, a club made up of freshmen and sophomore girls, who were recommended by their elementary school teachers, because of their leadership ability, was organized for this purpose.

Freshmen

1955

The Freshman year represents the beginning of a completely new phase of life to teen-agers. They have left the safe realms of planned elementary school studies and have entered a large high school where they must learn to think and plan as adults by choosing subjects that will help prepare them for college and future careers.

The Krueck Club is made up of freshmen and sophomore boys who were recommended by their elementary school teachers on the basis of their leadership ability. The three boys shown above refreshing themselves before a Krueck Club meeting are Allan Cors, Jerry Freeman and John Howard.

The freshman should enter into extra-curricular activities as soon as possible to relieve his bewildered, half-frightened air and to help make his school life a rich and well balanced one.

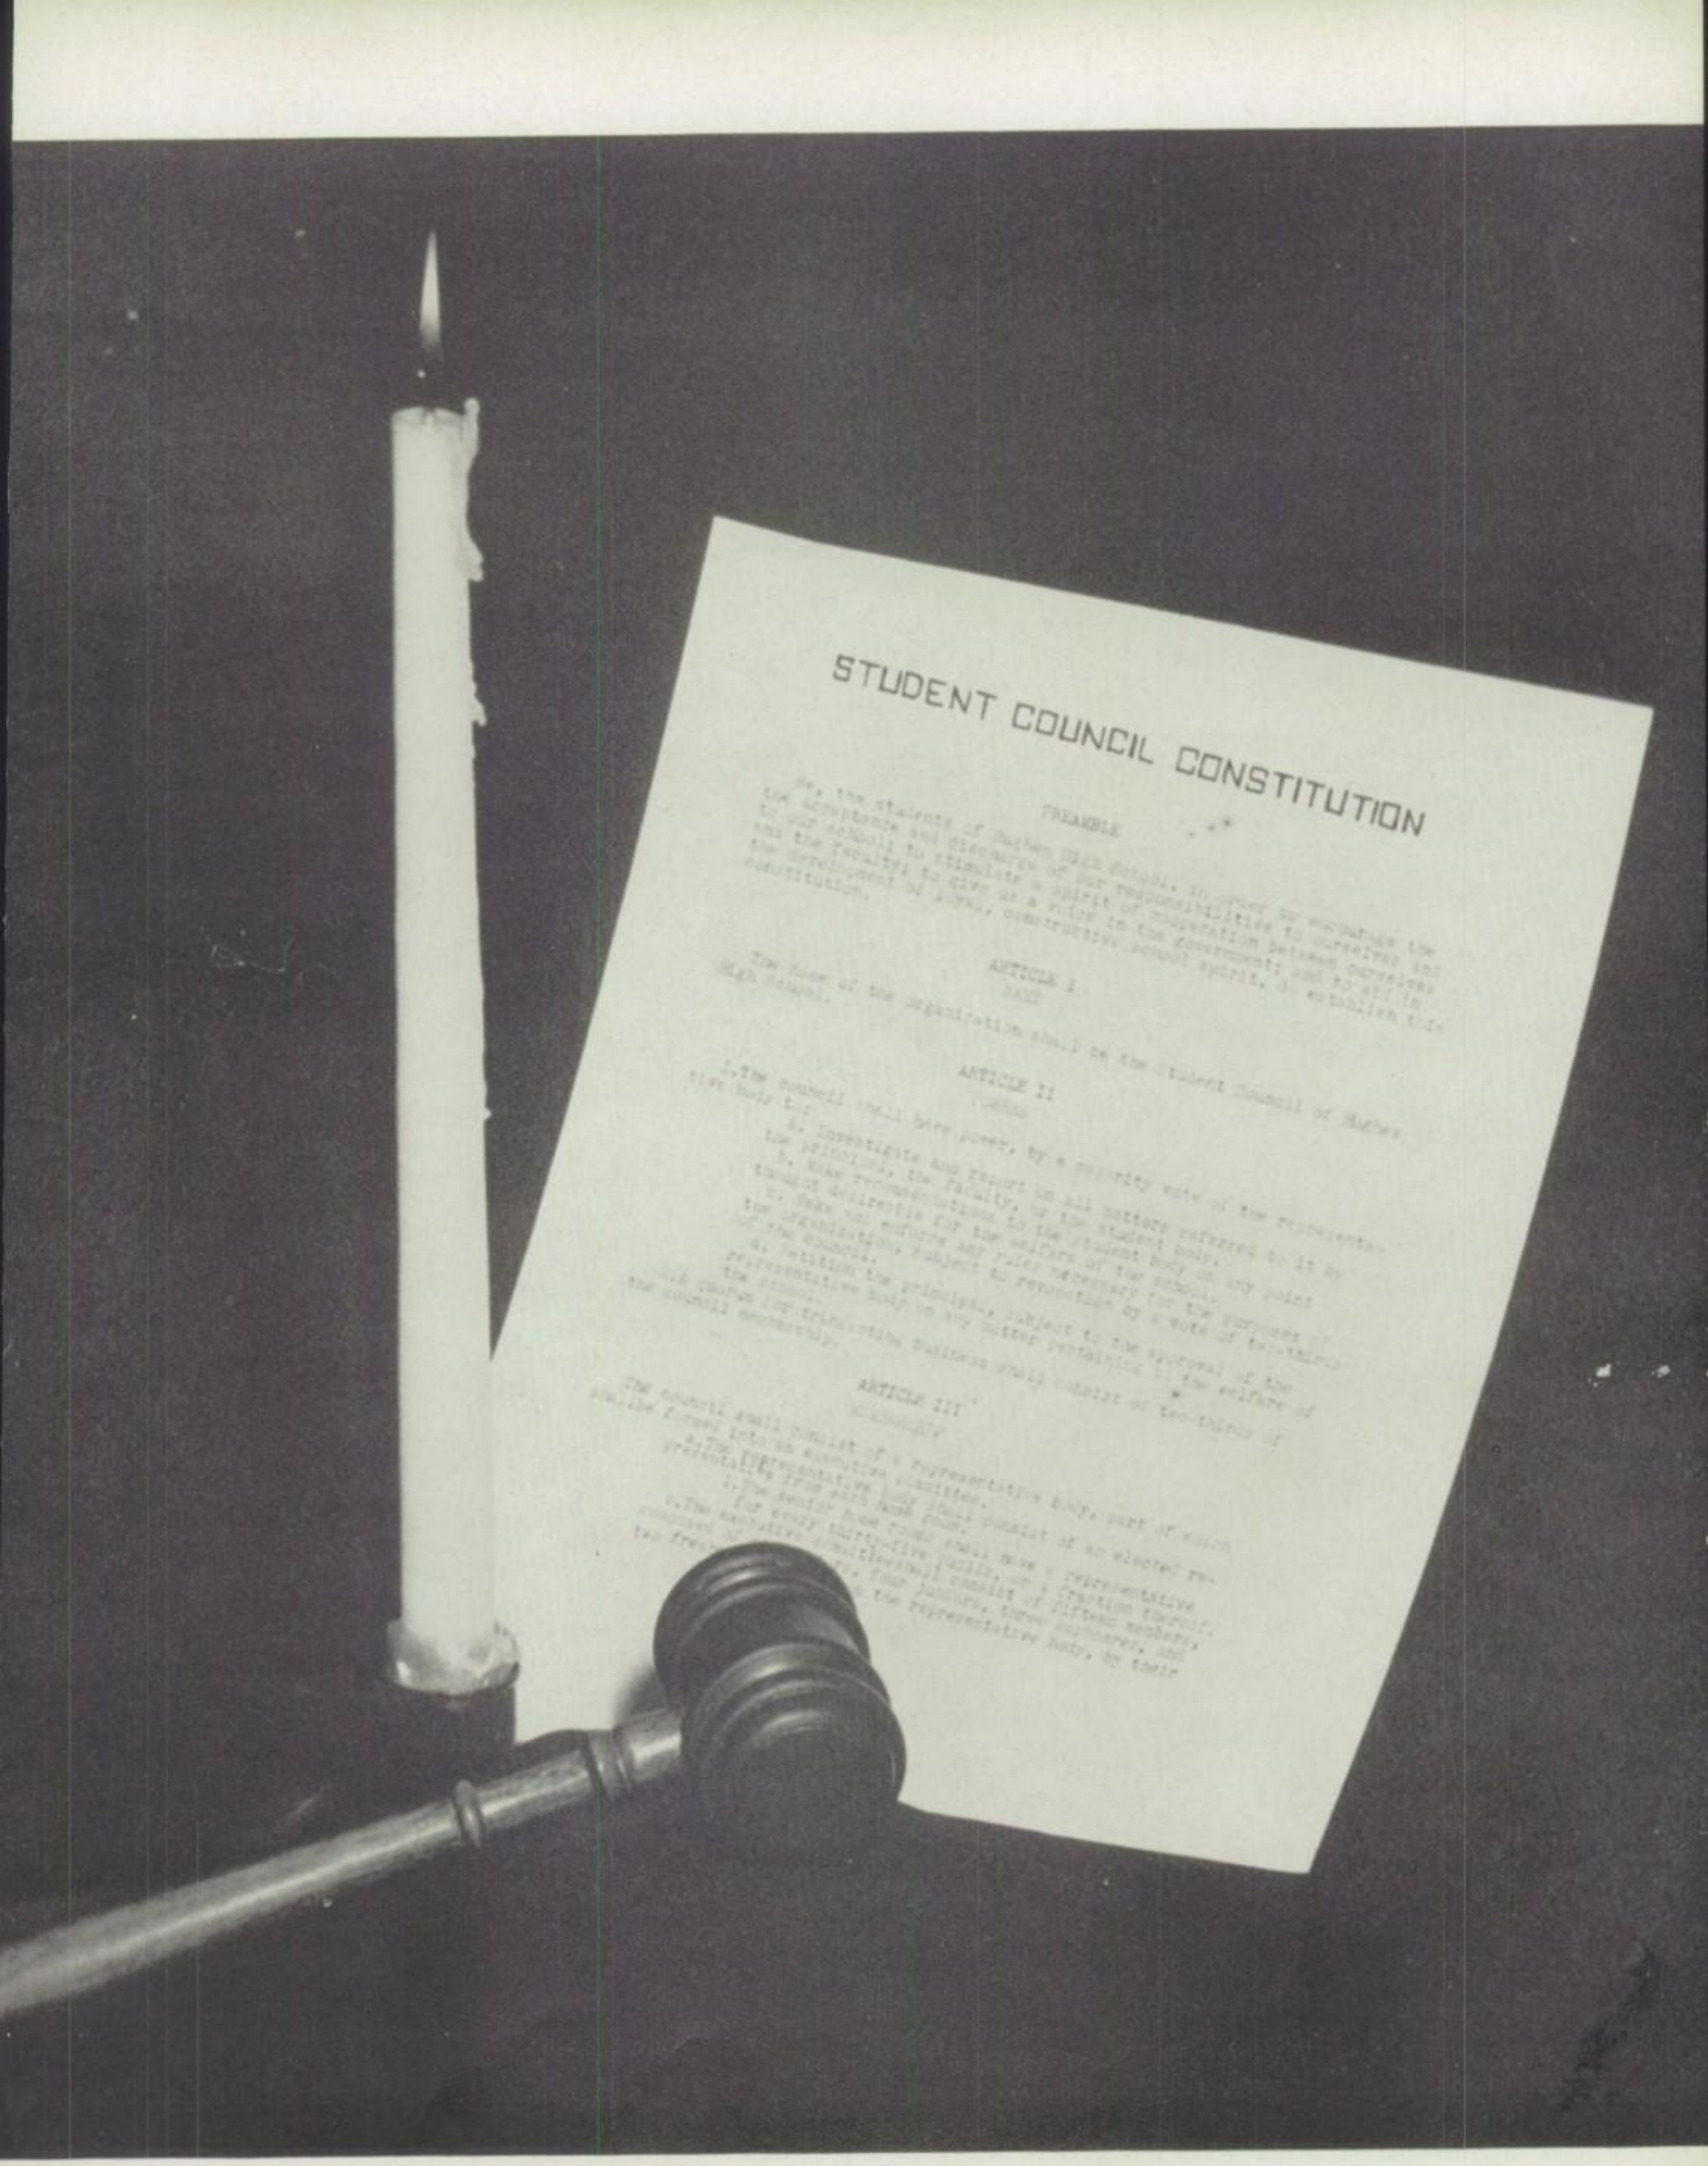
Organizations

Behind The Gavel

Organizations such as Student Council, foreign language clubs, fraternities and sororities offer valuable educational opportunities for high school students. Self-government, learning to understand others, learning to choose one's friends wisely are a part of becoming mature adults. Musical and dramatic talents are developed by participation in the plays and the Merry-Go-Round, by membership in the choir, orchestra, and band. Creative work is encouraged by the Gargoyle, the Annual, poster contests and debates. Many of the activities that formerly were called "extra-curricular" have proved so valuable in the educational program plan that they are now part of the regular school program.



STUDENT COUNCIL CONSTITUTION

Student Council Completes Its Sixth Successful Year

Last fall Student Council celebrated its sixth anniversary of giving voice to student views at Hughes. The council was formed in September 1945, and began its first year under the leadership of Stan Cohen. Student Council provides many services for the student body. The ink in study halls, the candy machine in the front corridor, water coolers and paper cups in the lunch rooms are all results of Council's efforts.

All students are represented on the council for each Home Room elects a representative. Suggestions may be submitted by any member, to be discussed and voted on at a regular meeting of the Council. The president is elected at the end of his Junior year to serve the following year.

For the past three years, Hughes has sent the elected president to the national convention of Student Councils which meets annually in various parts of the country. As a result the procedures at Hughes are those that are generally recognized as the best.

Under the able sponsorship of Mrs. Edna LeRoy and Miss Gladys Kloak, Student Council endeavors to achieve best for all the cooperation of students and representatives.

Honor League Members

Marlene Woehrman gracefully models in the fashion show sponsored by the Honor League.

The fifteen girls who form the Executive Board of the Honor League have many responsibilities. They plan the year's program, appoint committees, and generally supervise the activities of the entire group. Finding people who are willing to work, and who follow a job through until it is finished is one of their recurrent tasks.

The Christmas Tea is the big social event of the winter program. Honor League members, teachers, mothers, and alumnae gather for a social hour which everyone enjoys. Mrs. Victor Cooper who is a Hughes graduate, and the only woman member of the Board of Education was a guest this year.

The Executive Board: S. Pounds, President; S. Barrett, V. President; S. Meyer, Treasurer; P. Burch, Recording Secretary; M. Helfrich, Corresponding Secretary; J. Anderson, W. Barns, L. Bledsoe, R. Cox, E. Eason, R. Joos, P. McConnell, N. Murphy, L. Schneider, M. Wells.

Sponsor Many Activities

Freshie Aides, identified by arm bands, spend many hours during the first two weeks of school, guiding freshmen to classes and acquainting them with Hughes customs.

No Time to Relax! Freshmen Judy Gerhart and Bert McCrae stop to get information from Carolyn Davis, Freshie Aide who has sat down to rest between jobs.

Rosie Joos, in hillbilly jeans, gives programs to Big and Little Sisters about to see the Honor League Show, "Life On Croaking Frog Hill."

"To do the thing I know is true,
And should not be ashamed to do.
To help some other girl to see
The thing that so appeals to me."

These words of the Honor League motto express well the aims and ideals of the girls in this organization. Honor League was founded by Miss M. Julia Bentley. It has always been a club for senior girls of good character and morals. In recent years the requirement of an 80% three-year average has been added to the others.

Each year Honor League provides many invaluable services for the school. Freshie Aides, Thanksgiving baskets, a trip to the County Home, the redecoration of the Union Bethel, and Information Desk girls represent the endeavors of the organization. On the social side, Pogue's presented a fashion show, the Mother-Daughter Christmas Tea was held; freshman girls were entertained at the Big and Little Sister Party and the annual baseball game between 205 and 112 was played. Mrs. Enolia Heile, and Miss Aria P. Schawe sponsor the Activities of the Honor League.

Thanksgiving baskets, ready for distribution to needy families are inspected by Sally Pounds, president, and C. Harris, S. Barrett, C. Carrara, E. Eason, C. Hatter, B. Michelson, and E. Reiber.

Boys are chosen for membership in the middle of their junior years on the basis of character and their scholarship rating.

The entire 1951-1952 season was a busy one with the boys selling refreshments at football games, bowling on Friday afternoons, playing basketball in the Tuesday evening basketball league and, of course, the all important Brown County trip in the spring. The season's activities are always highlighted by this weekend trip to Indiana where the boys play ball, swim and camp out.

Musical

THE ENSEMBLE

The Hughes Senior A Cappella Choir under the direction of Robert C. McSpadden has again fulfilled its ambition of presenting praiseworthy music for the school. Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, selected by musical ability and grades, are members of the choir. Their extensive repertoire makes it possible for them to give many different performances. The agenda of the Senior Choir this year included programs for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, as well as choral work in the Merry-Go-Round, Spring Concert, and Carnival. Along with choirs from other Cincinnati Public High Schools, Hughes sang at the Christmas Symphony Concert under the direction of Thor Johnson, and at the May Festival. Our choir took part in a splendid program for the Principal's Convention and concluded its year's program with an impressive Graduation performance, ending with the ever traditional "Benediction."

Moments Highlight Memories

In between performances, members of the newly organized court were busy putting into effect laws adopted by the choir while the robarians were concerned about the care given the new robes. After much deliberation, Senior Choir chose a handsome pin which will become a tradition with the choir. The ensemble is a select group from the choir. It meets three times a week, rehearsing choir music and other selections. In this "Interlude" in Hughes High School's history, choir members look back at the high standards developed by former choirs with the hope of perfection in the future.

Orchestra Performances Show Skill

The Hughes Orchestra has long been an intregal part of the school. It has furnished entertainment and relaxation for audiences, and personal satisfaction and sense of achievement for its members. The chief aim of the orchestra is to bring to light and develop the talents of the musically ambitious students. The orchestra has brought pleasure and enjoyment to the student body and the public in the Christmas Concert, assemblies, Merry-Go-Round, and Commencement. The group is under the capable leadership of Mr. Herman H. Slayman.

Band Steps Up "Half-Time"

Mr. Herman H. Slayman, Director

The newly reorganized Hughes band has established an enviable reputation for the school. Long hours of practice and rehearsal under the capable direction of Mr. Herman H. Slayman precede every group performance. Before many football and basketball fans, the band formations have added color to half-time festivities.

Not only has the Hughes band performed in this way, but has also given us new spirit and zest at pep sessions and musical background for school plays and various auditorium sessions.

This year, the hard working majorettes donned new uniforms. Miss Francis Adomeit, with the help of the majorettes themselves, designed and sewed the colorful Indian-style outfits which even have genuine moccasins to match.

This year as always, the band has sponsored the Band-Queen campaign to gain money toward the greatly needed band uniforms. The new Band-Queen was Judy Appel.

Vigor And Vitality Characterize Pep Club

The Little "Big Red" Mascot — Sandy McSpadden.

The King and Queen of Hearts — Robin Freeman and Carol Sutherland.

Displaying almost inexhaustable energy and ingenuity was the rejuvenated Pep Club. Co-Sponsors Robert McSpadden and Milton Anderson headed one of the most active school clubs. Throughout the year, the club had "tag" days. On these days club members sold small colored tags which promoted better team and school spirit. So successful were these "tag" drives that almost no one was seen without these spirited boosters proudly showing forth from a button or wrist. Special sections were reserved in the stands at football games. These sections were among the most spirited cheering sections in the city. The basketball team also was backed by "tags."

Hughes Orators Express Ideas of Students

Parlators, the Hughes oratorical organization, was originated by Mrs. Enolia Heile of the English Department, in 1925. The name Parlators is derived from the French verb "parler," meaning "to speak." Although primarily concerned with debating, Parlators, is made up of seven various speech competitions. They are, debating, extemporaneous speaking, poetry reading, dramatic declamation, oratorical declamation, original oratory, and humorous declamation. Every other Tuesday, orators from The Greater Cincinnati Speech League meet at one of the member schools for a competition. A tournament gets its name engraved on the Speech League trophy. Any school getting its name on the trophy three times, may keep it. The last tournament Hughes won, was in January of 1951. The January debate of 1952 found Hughes in last place, and McNicholas High School winning the trophy. Head debaters for the 1951-1952 school year were: Negative—Dorothy Aberman and Gabe Frommer, Affirmative—Margie Wagner and Janie Brown. The question was: Resolved that "All American Citizens Should be Subject to Conscription for Essential Services in Time of War." The club sponsor is Mr. Arthur D. Gray, history teacher.

"On Stage"

This year, Sages has presented more plays than ever before for the Hughes students, their families, and friends. Under the capable direction of Miss Mary Pollard, the Sages have worked endlessly and have shown their dramatic achievement in the plays, "You Can't Take It With You" and "Life With Father." Television has also benefited by one of the performances of various members of this group, when "The Last Curtain" was given in April.

Thespians, made up of selected members of Sages, is an honorary group having gained a certain number of points to be eligible for membership.

A hard working group, quite often overlooked, is the Stage Crew. This group, efficiently run for the past two years by Bill Naylor, is responsible for the machine-like precision with which Hughes productions are presented. Without the many hours put in by these boys, the stage productions would be virtually impossible.

H - Club

The H-Club, an honor society for boys who have earned a letter in some form of athletics, was formed in 1948, by Coach Alan Kindshey and Mr. Dwight Smith. The purpose of the organization is to promote leadership, stability, clean living, and to promote general good fellowship and sportsmanship, along with an opportunity for social affairs under the right conditions.

The club contributes many services to the school. Annually the H-Club sponsors the All Sports Queen Dance, a hayride, and a basketball team in the inter-fraternity league. The club also sponsored the sale of programs for the Pigskin Preview.

This year Y-Teens sent Christmas cards to all Hughes teachers and get-well cards to sick members. Miss Ann Rasche is the advisor.

Krueck Club Provides Our Future Leaders

In recognition and remembrance of "Red" Krueck, a beloved Hughes football coach, the Krueck Club was founded in 1948, by Mr. Grimes. It is a club for outstanding Freshman and Sophomore boys. The two purposes of Krueck Club are to be of service to the school and to provide good times for their members. On the service side, they sold basketball schedule pencils and mistletoe at Christmas. Proceeds from the sales went to the Christmas Fund.

The Huzettes organization is as dignified and outstanding as the name implies. The Freshman and Sophomore girls who form its membership, however, have picnics, talent shows, and parties, as well as keeping up their high scholastic standing. In grade schools when girls are chosen to represent their school in this organization, grades are not all that are taken into consideration. Personality and being "best all around" are even more important for living a happy life in future years.

Latin Unites Past With Present

Anyone new coming into Hughes might think they were in several foreign countries at one time. This may seem exaggerated a little, but many Hughes students do learn to read, write and speak Latin, French, German or Spanish. You may think languages are rather a waste of time because chances are, most of us will not have an opportunity to speak our "foreign tongue" in its native land, but this is far from true. Languages are hard in that they are too new for us, but they are even more interesting. We not only become acquainted with the countries and customs of our foreign friends, but we learn to improve English grammar by studying constructions and the history of various English words.

Sales Clubs Learn From Civic Leaders

The Sales Clubs are composed of students interested in learning selling techniques. They learn new methods of selling and how to improve old ones. Greek Organizations Form Lasting Friendships

Miss Hazel Koppenhoefer

Mr. Paul Bowers

Interfratority Council is made up of representatives from all Hughes sororities and fraternities. Its purpose is to create better relationships among the different fraternities and thus bring about a closer co-operation and better understanding between fraternities, the faculty, and the student body in general. Rules are set up, disputes settled, and proper modes of conduct for social activities determined. The Interfratority Council, which has concluded its third year, is capably sponsored by Miss Hazel Koppenhoefer and Mr. Paul Bowers. These advisers assist the sororities and fraternities by registering the dates of all social affairs so as to prevent conflicts. Their major responsibility, however, is to see that rushing is carried on in a democratic manner and that high school fraternal life will always be remembered by the friendships formed and the happy times had by all.

Gargoyle Staff

Only a few of the student body realize the many hours of labor that go into the publication of the Gargoyle. Aside from the hours spent in Journalism class, the staff works long and hard each Tuesday night. Many previously unfamiliar terms become a necessary portion of the Journalism students vocabulary, such as layout, copy, type rule, 24 point, lead, and bold face. The staff member, whether editor or cub reporter, gains a great deal of worth while experience through the time he devotes to the Gargoyle. The guiding hand and ever efficient sponsor is Miss Hazel Koppenhoefer, who has stood behind this publication since its beginning in 1928. Reporters are: R. Boyer, C. Bujdoso, C. Chamas, J. Simmons, S. Pattilo, J. Gaudin, C. Jordan, P. Keller, C. Schumacher, S. Bowers, V. Vigiris.

The hard hours of work have paid dividends. The Annual staff can look with pride at the finished product. Many people have given much time and effort to produce this annual. Within a few weeks after the beginning of this year, the members of the staff became a closely coordinated working group. Co-operation and patience were found to be the indispensable factors in working together as a staff. The Business Staff helped to furnish the revenue necessary to meet the costs.

Brought To Life

The Editorial Staff with the aid of the artists and photographers fashioned artistic and attractive layouts. Copywriters racked their brains to tell of the scenes pictured. After hours of pouring over layouts, Miss Virginia Keck uttered the precious words, "Okay, send it down." The engraver bid farewell and more time was devoted to the printer. Finally, with a sigh of relief and a sense of accomplishment, realization came that at last the 1952 Annual was completed.

Hughes is a school of many traditions; one of the most recently founded is the yearly presentation of the "Merry-Go-Round," a musical comedy. This marks the third anniversary of the first "Merry-Go-Round" production. Everyone is especially proud of these shows because our own Mr. "Mac" has helped to write the continuity for them. Because of the annual's early printing date, it is impossible to show pictures of this year's production, "What Are We Waiting For?" The scenes above are from last year's "Khacki Wacki." "Khacki Wacki" is the story of four draftees and their adventures in the unorthodox Camp Jelly Bean. This questionable military madhouse is looked over by General Culpepper whose wife aspires for him to be an admiral. The General's three ugly daughters; a movie star, incognito; a Frenchman; a top sergeant; and a lady wrestler, all help to make interesting plot developments.

Another school year has drawn to a close. This has a varied significance. To many it is another school year finished. To others it means the end of a high school career. Some will end their formal education and proceed to earn their way in the world. Others will pursue their education further in college. To everyone, regardless of grade, the end of this year marks a milestone in life. At Hughes we have acquired practical experiences in how to live. We have been exposed to the various aspects of life which will prepare us to live as better citizens. Each of us will leave a little of ourselves at Hughes. Our experiences have taught us to be better people and we have profited by our mistakes. We have developed our talents in different fields; and we have discovered that there is a place for each one of us. We are trying to get the most out of our youth by putting our inexhaustible energies to good use. Whether this has been our first or last year at Hughes we have enjoyed it; for these are the "best years of our lives."

Sports

On the Field and in the Gym

Yes, studies, clubs, and school projects do play a large part in our four years of high school life, but, somehow, there's no feeling like that which comes over a boy and girl when he or she is out on that field playing for the honor of the school. Whether on football field, basketball floor, baseball diamond, or golf links, that feeling is still there.

Some times, spectators forget that the boys or girls out there playing for their school, have worked hard for that honor, coming early in the morning, and staying late at night.

Students have said that basketball at Hughes will not be the same without Robin Freeman, or the Gym team cannot continue its winning streak without Cal Gladden, Ron Irvin, or Joe Heckler; but teams in the past have shown how wrong this outlook can be. There will be others to fill the shoes of the seniors who are graduating this year.

Next year and in years to come, other outstanding athletes will enter the doors of the Clifton Palace, and place their names alongside the names of John Anderson, Billy Talbert, Ray Nolting, and Robin Freeman.

Girls and Boys of Hughes, look forward to the future! No matter what year you are attending school, "Hughes High is Marching, and this is our day."

Spirit Compensates Grid Defeats

A great loss of senior players from the 1950 season, a complete turnover in the coaching staff, and outstanding teams in the Cincinnati area are all factors which caused the record of the 1951 Big Red Eleven to look unimpressive. With two wins, one tie, and six losses the Hughes team finished fifth in the P.H.S.L. competition, ahead of Walnut Hills.

Spirit compensated for the losses, with special cheering sections, buses, tags, and after school pep sessions adding to the boys' morale. This revival in spirit was the result of a thorough renovating of the Pep Club.

Returning to school in the fall, most Hughes students were surprised to find a complete turnover in the grid coaching staff. Taking over the helm, was Mr. Howard Thomas, formerly of Marion Hardy High School, Marion, Ohio. The assistant coaching position was held by Mr. Roy Hartker, an Air Force veteran. Mr. "Red" Thornbury from Clifton Elementary School, while Coach Morgan Jones, the only remaining coach piloted the Freshmen gridsters.

Defeat greeted the Hughes eleven, in their first time out by way of a 38-19 wallop at the hands of the strong Columbus Central players. Making a strong come-back in a game that experts had predicted Hughes to lose, the gridmen held the Lockland Panthers to a 0-0 tie in what proved to be a battle between two excellent defensive teams.

Victory, however, was not far away for the hard fighting Huzites; for in an upset, St. Xavier bowed to the Big Reds, losing to the tune of 27-0. Although spirited by their first win, Coach Thomas' boys lost to the superior Roger Bacon team the following week by a score of 25-6.

In their first P.H.S.L. tilt, the Reds lost to a very much improved Woodward team, 30-14. Following a "never say die" spirit the Big Red eleven duelled to a near upset the following week, losing by the small margin of 25-20 to the Hornets from Central.

Withrow was the next target, but Hughes fans were very much disappointed when the Reds came out of the annual classic on the short end of a 40-7 wallop. In the P.H.S.L. Double-header Walnut Hills fell victim of a 19-7 loss, but the Big Reds dropped their final game 14-0 to the West-Hi Maroons.

Sparking the Gridsters were: Ron Greiser, with nine touchdowns to his credit; Russ Smith, Captain, with his many conversions; Cal Gladden, who held the end position very ably; Karl Buck, defensive captain; Jim Sprague, with his countless first downs, Red Hansel, and Bill Kennedy, next year's Captain.

The reserve squad, headed by Coach "Red" Thornberry, had a fairly successful season by winning three of their games and losing two. With a poor start, the "Little Reds" improved as the season progressed, beating Western Hills, Walnut Hills and Withrow.

Sparking the team were: Ken Watson, Ron Panioto, Tom Stockhoff, Butch Holden, Ron Otto, and Bert Cohen. Helping with his great speed, was Gers Polasky. Next year should find a strong reserve team, with many able freshmen being added to the team.

Getting off to a shaky start, by losing to the Woodward Bulldogs, the "Baby Reds" came back to win four games for the P.H.S.L. runner-up spot. The squad beat Western Hills, Central, Walnut Hills, and in their final game, they walloped the Withrow Freshmen Eleven.

Coach Morgan Jones credits the wins to the wonderful spirit that prevailed throughout the season. He believes that both the Reserves and Varsity will have excellent material from the Freshman squad, with which to build very good teams.

Harriers Cop Crown

With an impressive margin, the Big Red Harriers won their first P.H.S.L. crown in seven years and then went on to take the district championship by 39 points.

Coach Alan Kindschy's boys placed five men on the top ten list in their first meet, a feat which had not been accomplished by any P.H.S.L. team in three years. The second and third meet also found five Big Reds among the first ten. After taking the district meet, the Huzites had to be satisfied with a ninth place in state competition, after running in almost an inch of snow.

Co-Captain Bill Richmond led the harriers with two third and one sixth place finishes in league competition, and a second place in the district run. Co-Captain Bill Huber, plus Bob Goering, Gary Clemons, Tom Wert, and Gil Godby also played a very active part in copping the title.

Basketeers Record Best Season in Years

The Hughes "Big Reds" climaxed a successful season by trouncing Central at the Cincinnati Gardens. They then beat Western Hills in the district tournament and secured a chance to play in the second round of the tournament for the first time in many years.

The "Big Reds" finished second in Public High School League competition; winning four games and losing only one in the second round of League play. Among these victories, one of the most outstanding was an exciting battle with League leading Withrow. This was one of the Tiger's four losses of the season. These also beat Walnut Hills, Woodward, and Central, losing only to Western. We later avenged this defeat in the tournament.

Coach "Burley" Grimes

The team's success was not the only bright spot of the season, as a new star was born. He was Robin "Raven" Freeman, the team's sensational guard, who scored a phenomenal total of 790 points, in only twenty games, for an amazing average of 39.5 points per game.

He won many honors: he was elected Captain of the All-City and All-State Teams; he received more votes than any other individual player in Ohio. He set many records: in the district tournament he had a total of 74 points in two games; he also scored 48 points in a single game in the tournament (the highest on record).

Also showing great skill and promise were, Juniors: Sam Ulmer, Bill Bode, and Frank Hartman; Sophomore: Ken Hixon; Freshman: Bill Whitaker.

Ulmer, the "Big Reds" giant center, who was second only to Freeman in points scored, is sure to be a big gun in the "Big Reds" attack next year. Hartman and Bode also had excellent seasons, and will form the nucleus of next year's squad. Hixon, who was a sophomore, and Whitaker, freshman, showed promising ability and will help the "Big Reds" in the future.

The Hughes basketeers, '51-'52 record showed much improvement over previous years, and Coach Grimes will have very good material to work with in the following years.

Revised Keglers Roll to Second Place

Coach "Red" Thornberry helped bring to the attention of many students, the interesting sport of bowling. Hughes has had bowling teams for many years, but it wasn't until this year that the boys received bowling letters and publicity.

Led by Bill Caldwell with a 165 average, the Big Reds took second place behind Western Hills. The Huz five chalked up 14 wins while losing 10. John Atkins had second high average with 158.

Other boys rolling with the 1952 revised keglers, were: Matt Harding, 154 average; Vic Craft, 145; Bill Dettmer, 144; Gary Clemons, 144; and Jim Gentil, 140.

Dual Wins Overshadow Swimmer's Losses

Plagued by the loss of most of his Senior Swimmers, Coach Alan Kindschy piloted the Hughes squad to a third place finish in P.H.S.L. standings. While taking third position in Public High School competition, the Big Reds managed to win three of its dual meets by beating St. Xavier, Purcell, and Norwood.

Coach Kindschy has great hopes for next year's swimmers, with the nucleus of his squad returning. While losing lettermen Rich Werner, Ed Rosenthal, and John Seyfried; Junior lettermen Phil Nedelman, Fritz Page, Bert Cohn, Bruce Bernhard, Pete Soell, Ron Greiser, and Alan Greiser will return.

Dean Moore, Ron David, Tom Unger, and John Howard should also help create very good contenders for the 1953 championship.

Matmen Chalk up 16th Straight Crown

Despite the loss of over one half of last year's squad, the matmen from Hughes chalked up consecutive crown number sixteen. Although somewhat weakened by the lack of some of the best gymnasts Hughes has ever seen, the Big Reds won all three city meets by a great margin.

Coach Paul Richert believes that this year's competition was the strongest in many years, but still the closest team to Hughes, was Western Hills with 98.5 points, while the Big Reds had 168.

A larger than usual squad of almost 45 men also contributed to the success by giving Coach Richert ample material with which to form his team.

Cal Gladden illustrates excellent form.

Coach Paul Richert

Cal Gladden, an all around athlete helped the team to take the three meets. Cal, who starred in football, and track, and holds nine letters, won the Golden Gloves Heavy Weight Championship. He later went to the national finals in Chicago. Cal does excellent work on the parallel bars.

Seniors, Joe Heckler, side horseman; Lloyd Harrison, all around gymnast; and Ron Irvin, Captain, and ringman, sparked the team. With only four men leaving the squad, championship number seventeen, might be in store for 1953.

Ray Fothergill, on the horizontal bars; Don Burdsall, rope; Carl Scott, tumbling; and Ron David, Tom Wert, and Roger Parry should help next year's team.

The junior matmen also took first place, by beating Withrow, Central, Western Hills. Woodward and Walnut Hills did not enter P.H.S.L. competition. In their first meet, the squad broke a record, by scoring 73 points in one meet.

Tabulating 166.5 points to second place Withrow's 75.5, the juniors showed Hughes students that the gymsters should remain on top for at least one more year.

"Mayor" Rebuilds Diamond Nine

With but a few of his lettermen returning, Coach Robert Reuss began building his 1952 baseball team. Coach Ray Hartker assisted "Mayor" Reuss; and together they began to form what they hoped would be another championship team. Coach Hartker, who has had professional training in the pitching field, took charge of the pitching staff and kept them busy before as well as after school.

Coach Reuss, who coached the 1949 state champs, hoped to add consecutive City-Championship number four.

Returning to the squad was Manual Sobel, who is a very competant man behind the catcher's mask. On the mound for the Big Red Nine were lettermen Andy Cox and Dick Strasser, both with good records. The infield was occupied by lettermen Frank Hartman at first, Bill Kennedy at second, and Jim Handley at third.

In the outfield, Jim Fartsalas, the only outfield letterman, saw action. Many Sophomores and Juniors also played with the Hughes squad.

Andy Cox

Last year, the Big Reds finished in a first place tie with Western Hills. They had a record of ten wins and four losses, one of which was in the district tournament against Mt. Healthy. A loss to Withrow cost them full possession of the first place Crown.

A year of rebuilding was what the "Mayor" predicted for the Big Reds, and next year one of the best teams ever should come onto the field.

Frank Hartman

Hurdlers Bill Floyd and Allan Greiser.

Harriers Go Through Hurdles

Coach Richert began selecting candidates for the track team in the beginning of March. At press time, the team was being formed around returning veterans, Frank Richmond, Bill Huber, and Calvin Gladden. Calvin is an outstanding athlete who can do just about anything, and do it exceptionally well. Frank and Bill led the cross-country team to a victorious season, and will demonstrate their skill in running distances.

Among the varied activities included in track are: pole vaulting, shot putting, discus throwing, and running. Even though the team is losing several lettermen from last year's squad, the ambition shown by the younger members will more than make up for the loss.

Two field event men demonstrating proper form are, Cal Gladden and Ron Irvin.

The team's chances to improve over previous seasons seem good, because of the many new prospects trying out every day in the boy's gym. Coach Richert will have a nucleus of returning veterans, and new recruits to work with, which will probably turn out to be an improved squad.

Trackmen Bill Richmon and Bob Goering work out in early practice.

Eight Racqueteers Return

Although Coach Grimes has lost most of his leading players, the Hughes racqueteers believed that they were sure to have a fine season. The reason for this opinion was that they had excellent returning material.

Leading this year's squad will be Glen Grubbs, Sam Ulmer, Bill Grimes, Stewart Lipp, Russ Smith, Roger Parry, Jim Jervis, and Dean Moore.

During most of March and April, the boys worked out at the Coy Field Tennis courts to develop their skill.

After finishing their 1952 season in second position behind Withrow, the linksters again began preparation for what they hoped to be a successful season.

Attending an organization meeting were eleven prospects including three returning lettermen, Dave Fleck, Ray Spiess, and Glen McClure.

Workouts take place at City Golf Courses individually, and at Avon Fields under the guidance of Coach Morgan Jones. Returning to the squad next year will be Glen McClure and Ray Spiess.

OUT ON A LIMB at the G.A.A. Picnic are Janet Schnicke, Connie Broughton, Arline Durban, Louise Huether, Joyce Maher, and Marlene Opp.

G A A

"For when the one Great Scorer comes
To mark against your name,
He writes not that you won or lost,
But how you played the game."

To Play's The Thing

Elise Goering

To play and work together in sportsmanship and fun has always been the aim of the members of the Girls' Athletic Association. Miss Jeanette Nurre, aided by Mrs. Rita Zwick Lacker, has, as sponsor, done a great deal this year and in past years to forward this ideal.

Sports teach the members to play together; the many other activities teach them to work together, and to have fun doing it. Helping others builds one's own character; and G.A.A. has built a solid foundation of it this past year. Beside contributing to the school Christmas Fund (see page 170), G.A.A. traveled to the County Home at Christmas to take refreshments and entertainment to its occupants. In March, a committee helped decorate the room at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel in which the Midwest Physical Education Convention was held.

The formal and informal initiations, held on January 31, were the beginning of good times in G.A.A. for this year's initiates. At an impressive ceremony, each girl was presented with a corsage.

The climax of every year is the banquet, held in May, at which awards are given to those girls who have earned four hundred or more points. It is at the banquet also that the Honor Girl of the year is named and presented with a ring.

In the years since its founding, G.A.A. has done much for the girls of Hughes and for the school itself. It may be truly said that G.A.A. has become a wholesome essential of the interlude of high school life.

In 1951, for the first time in the history of G.A.A., two girls were awarded the Honor Girl ring, given for outstanding leadership, scholarship, sportsmanship, and activity, by the recommendation of the faculty.

Stella Nikias (no picture) was President of G.A.A., Vice President of Senior Choir, President of Pep Club, and was elected Best Girl Athlete in the Senior Popularity contest. Elise Goering upper left was a member of Senior Choir and the Honor League Executive Board, Activities Chairman of G.A.A., and Vice President of Homeroom 205. She won the title of Friendliest Girl in the Popularity contest.

It is with pleasure and pride that the G.A.A. pays tribute to Stella and Elise; they are examples of the embodiment of the G.A.A. motto.

The officers of G.A.A. are (counterclockwise): Charlene Harris, President; Betty Ann Vago, Vice President; Marilyn Harris, Secretary; and Mary Lou Steuber, Activities Chairman. These girls, with Carol Rentschler, Mary Ann Clayton, Rita Murphy, Betty Martin, Erleen Bruns, June Uhlhorn, Arline Durban, Joyce Maher, and Connie Broughton, form the Executive Board.

The Serious Side of G. A. A.

Diane Drohan experiences the beauty of the formal initiation as she is welcomed by President Charlene Harris.

AN APPLE A DAY became a habit for a great part of the female population at Hughes during the G. A. A. apple sale in the gym which lasted from late September to December. The money earned the first three months went into the G. A. A. treasury; that earned in December was donated to the Hughes Christmas Fund. Here Jean Combest polishes apples while Arline Durban makes a sale to Donna Dyer.

Infinite Activities of The G. A. A. Keep The Members Constantly Working and Liking It.

NATURE GIRLS fled from the coddlings of civilization last fall on October 25, to enjoy the larks of a G. A. A. picnic. Playing baseball in Burnet Woods were (left to right) Charlene Harris, Pat Kellet, Marilyn Harris, and Mary Lou Steuber. The girls also ran relays, sang, and – last but never least – devoured quantities of food before returning to Hughes.

Table tennis, or ping-pong, is a lively "rainy day" sport. Janie Brown illustrates a serve and grins for the Annual Photographer at the same time.

Sportleader Mary Ann Clayton shows a good way to lose a badminton match — swing at the bird and look in the opposite direction.

A Quartet of Individual Sports Offers a Variety of Fun

Shuffleboard reaches its highest popularity on the decks of luxury ocean liners; G.A.A.'ers have transplated the game to the Hughes gym. Connie Broughton watches while Joan Baschang "shuffles the board."

Horseshoes made of rubber are "dead ringers" for the iron ones used outdoors. Rita Murphy pitches a game in the girls' gym.

Hockey is the only game in which a "bully", as illustrated by Rita Murphy and Arline Durban, is permitted.

A "Stick-In-The-Mud" Sport

Hockey as played by the members of G. A. A. can easily be labeled by the above caption, for the matches are played in the Mud Bowl — Coy Field. Every Tuesday and Thursday from September to November, a regular procession of Hockey sticks can be seen marching to the playfield.

The game can get very exciting, especially when the football squad begins teasing and coaching from the other side of the field where the boys are practicing. This is the interesting atmosphere in which Mrs. Rita Lacker prepared the girls for Hockey Play-day, held on November 7.

ARCHERY REPRODUCES A PIECE OF NATURAL HUGHES ARCHITECTURE as Arline Durban and Charlene Harris pose with bow and arrow. This sport, one of the favorites, gives feminine William Tells a chance to perfect their marksmanship. At the end of each season, a tournament is held in order that the best markswoman may be found and honored. This year the winners were Evelyn Carter, Intermediates, and Barbara Gibson, Beginners.

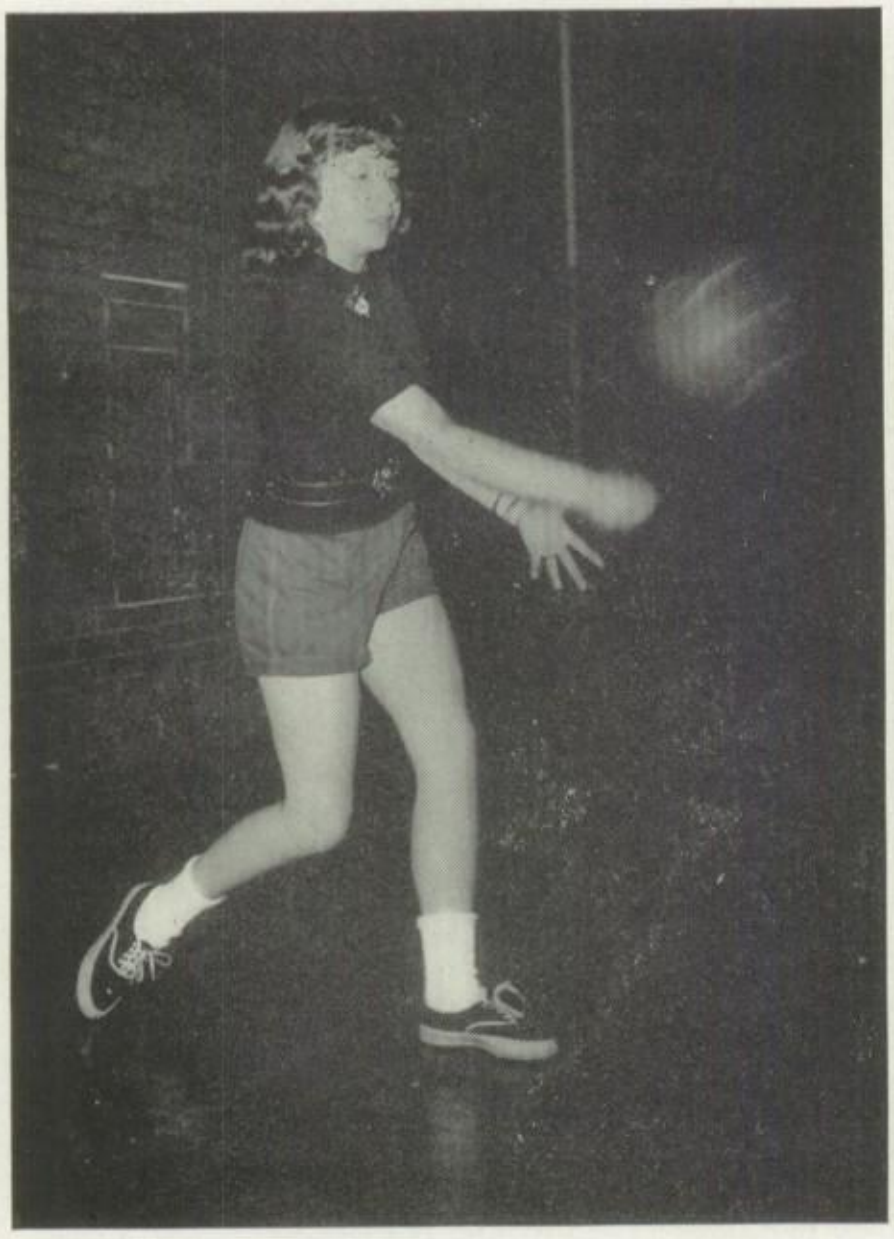
TENNIS DEMANDS TOP FORM and an excess of energy. Beginning in April, the game is played in the gym or at Coy Field. June Uhlhorn here demonstrates a high serve.

GRACE IS THE GOAL of every girl who attends the Modern Dance classes held every Wednesday beginning December 6. Under the tutelage of Miss Jeanette Nurre, the dancers learn the art of self expression through physical motion. This year a dance symposium was held at Hughes, and the guest speaker and teacher was a dance instructor from the University of Cincinnati. Posing here for the photographer are Jenny Courtney, Mary Reta Hayes, and Sportleader Betty Martin.

BASEBALL IS EVERYBODY'S SPORT. The minute a boy is able to hold a bat, he starts swinging one; on office picnics, business magnates still think it's great fun to puff off a few ounces on the diamond. Girls in G.A.A. enjoy it, too, as illustrated here.

Left, Carol Rentschler releases a pitch. Right, "Mac" Clayton gingerly catches for Joyce Maher. All practice is held at Coy Field, or in the gym; the climax of the season is the playday at Lunken Airport.

Marlene Opp "serves it right."



In The Sphere

ON TOP OF THE VOLLEYBALL WORLD are the girls from Hughes who won the first place title, tying Woodward, at the Volleyball Playday in January. The regular practice lasts from November to January in the gym.

Of Spheres

A Volleyball arabesque by Marilyn Harris.

MERMAIDS AT PLAY prove that swimming can be fun all year round. Every Friday they invade the boys' pool and make it their happy swimming ground. This year the final meet was on April 1; the results were not available at the time when the Annual went to press.

Lessons in Basketmaking

Coached by Mrs. Rita Lacker, G. A. A. 'ers learn all fundamentals (and a few of the tricks) of basketball. Regular teams are formed and play against each other. The goal of every girl who goes out for basketball is to be chosen to play in the Battle of the Sexes.

REACHING FOR THE REBOUND from the basket are (clockwise): M. Fulton, J. Baschang, R. Murphy, C. Hochstrasser, and M. Harris.

The Battle of The Sexes

"The sharp whistle of the referee splits the air. The tense silence gives way to a bedlam of sound as the two teams trot onto the floor amid the cheering of the spectators, and the game has begun!"

So might a sports commentator herald the Battle of the Sexes, the annual contest between beauty and brawn for the supremacy of the basketball court. Held every April, the game pits the masculine wisdom of the boys' Varsity against the feminine wiles of the G. A. A. Honor Team. The event is unique: the boys are uniformed in girls' gym suits, and they must follow the rules used in the girls' game. Needless to say, new rules and strategies are invented and employed by both teams.

Here we present a maneuver which might have been used in this year's game: Ken Hixson and Sam Ulmer illustrate a new method of making a basket while June Uhlhorn guards from below, and Arline Durban and Charlene Harris protect the basket from above. The incomparable "Raven" is kept from aiding his colleagues by the combined efforts of Sandra Lancaster and Carol Rentschler.

Advertising

. . . In the Market Place

Each year, through untiring efforts and perseverence, the Business Managers, elected by popular vote of the Senior class, and the members of the Business Staff of the Annual secure ads and manage the financial department. It has always been a practice of the Hughes students to patronize the advertisers of the Annual. Because of this fine co-operation between students and advertisers we are able to produce year after year a fine Annual. This year Arlene Ott and Eddie Ettin have efficiently filled the positions of the Business Managers.

Business Managers Arlene Ott and Ed Ettin congratulate Jodfred Tash and Dan Collier, members of the Business Staff who collected the most ads.

Dear Smoky,

This past year has been a wonderful year for the both of us.

Going to the Cozy after school every day has been a source of pleasure for the whole gang.

Those few pennies, nickles, dimes, and even a few quarters that you lent me might never be repaid but I hope that just knowing me ought to be enough payment.

You're a swell kid and a good friend to have. I wish you the best of luck and all the success in the world.

Have a happy and complete life. I'll bet seeing you this summer and I know that we'll have loads of fun.

Hope that something comes of your relationships with Stan.

Happy days

Love

Chelly
+ Elliott

P.S. See you soon!
